

HOUSTON ART FAIR

Houston Art Fair: Friday, September 29 through Sunday, October 2, 2016
Opening Reception: Thursday, September 29, 6:00 - 10:00 pm

Seeds of Light - Fields of Color: Susan Plum and Dorothy Hood
Presented by Deborah Colton Gallery
Booth B-5

Susan Plum and Dorothy Hood were selected for Deborah Colton Gallery's Houston Arts Fair exhibition this year due their many similarities in concept, aesthetic and background, even though they evolved during different decades.

Some of the influences both artists share stem from their experience of living in Mexico, which created a love of the mystery behind the rational, a particular treasure one discovers in this region. Their research led them, as it did to many artists of that era, into the world of nature, metaphysics, philosophy, contemporary and ancient science, alchemy and mythology.

Please come view the work of Dorothy Hood and Susan Plum which includes major oils on canvas, drawings on paper, sculpture and video.

Presentation by Susan Plum and Deborah Colton: Sunday, October 2nd, 3:30 pm at Deborah Colton Gallery booth.
