Houston Symphony's Young Professionals Backstage

On May 3rd, the Houston Symphony's Young Professionals Backstage hosted their final event of the 2012-13 season Friday night with one of Music Director Hans Graf's final concerts featuring Mozart's Symphony No. 40 and the Stravinsky Violin Concerto performed by 23-year old Russian Violinist Eugene Ugorski. The performance of these two great masterworks was followed by an after party at The Deborah Colton Gallery near Rice Village featuring the art of up-and-coming New York artist Harif Guzman. Around 100 young professionals gathered at the gallery to mix and mingle amongst the sounds of DJ Squincy Jones, pose for a photo booth complete with festive props, partake in cocktail mixology lessons and enjoy fresh bites and libations.
