

Selected Portraits from the Suzanne Paul Photograph Archive

Houston-born photographer and UH alum Suzanne Paul documented many local artists, patrons, and arts community leaders during her career from the 1970s to 2005. Paul had solo exhibitions at the Contemporary Arts Museum Houston, the Fort Worth Art Museum, and the Galveston Arts Center, among others, and is in the permanent collection of the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston. Her archive of prints and negatives was placed with the University of Houston Libraries in 2025.

UH Libraries especially thanks Mercedes Paul Mallard and Deborah Colton for their care, stewardship, and generosity in bringing the Suzanne Paul Photograph Archive to UH.
