OLGA TOBREKUTS: NEW ABILITIES
OPENING RECEPTION

Deborah Colton Gallery

February 28, 2015

Culture vultures made their way to Deborah Colton Gallery for the opening of New Abilities, the second solo exhibition of the multimedia works by Russian artist Olga Tobrekuts. The collection of colorful and pixelated works explores the adaptive evolution in human visual perception in the 21st century and offers an artistic perspective in today's technological age.
